

Chanute Recreation Commission Coach/Player/Parent/Spectator Code of Conduct

Coaches, players, parents and spectators have a responsibility to behave in a respectful manner that will instill a sense of sportsmanship in all players.

As a coach, player, parent or spectator at a Chanute Recreation Commission sporting activity I understand:

1. It will not be tolerated at any time to lay a hand upon, push, shove, and threaten to strike or verbally threaten an official, player, spectator or supervisor.
2. Being involved in a physical altercation with a player, coach, or other spectator will result in my ejection from the game and possible suspension from future games.
3. All coaches, players, parents, and spectators will abide by the officials decision. The official's decision and/or calls are not arguable. If you have a concern regarding the officiating contact the CRC Sports Director.
4. Verbal abuse, harassment, and/or unsportsmanlike behavior towards an official, player, spectator, supervisor or athletics staff member is not tolerated.
5. All coaches, players, parents and spectators will refrain from the use of vulgar or unsportsmanlike manners including language while at any CRC sporting activity, including practices and games.
6. Any coach, player, parent or spectator that is ejected from the game must leave the playing area immediately upon request. Failure to leave will result in suspension of the game and/or forfeiture of the game.
7. The zero tolerance policy is in effect at all CRC athletic events.

Zero Tolerance Policy

There will be zero tolerance for players, coaches and spectators who engage in harassing and/or unsportsmanlike behavior with umpires / officials, other spectators, game supervisors, other players, or CRC Staff. Officials, game supervisors and CRC Staff have the authority to penalize the player, coach, spectator, or team if an official is sworn at, harassed, argued with, or insulted. Penalties will range from: warning, ejection from game, suspension from future games and possible forfeiture of the game.

Failure to abide by the Code of Conduct will result in ejection from the game and possible suspension from future games.
